

CALL TO PEACE: COMMUNITY SUMMIT TO END GUN VIOLENCE IN BERKELEY

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11TH 4-6:30PM ON ZOOM

A community-centered gathering to hear from violence prevention experts, community leaders, survivors, and families impacted by violence, with a goal of developing a detailed proposal, by and for the community, that will result in the elimination of gun violence in Berkeley.

KEYNOTE REMARKS

Dr. Lorrain Taylor

Founder and Director of 1000 Mothers to Prevent Violence

Pastor Michael McBride

National Director of LiveFree and Pastor of The Way Church

WELCOMES FROM

Former Berkeley Mayor Gus Newport
Corinna Gould, Tribal Chair of the Confederated
Villages of Lisjan

PANELS

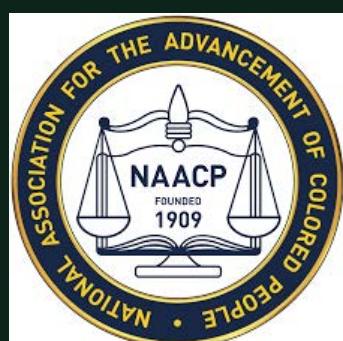

Violence Prevention and Intervention
Survivors and Impacted Individuals

BREAKOUTS

Community voices on solutions to gun violence

SPONSORED BY

Berkeley NAACP
Berkeley Community Safety Coalition
African American/Black Professionals & Community Network
Black Repertory Group
Healthy Black Families
1000 Mothers to Prevent Violence
Latinos Unidos de Berkeley

Register to attend

[https://us02web.zoom.us/
meeting/register/tZYpcemr-qj4oE9RmFMPzX11PU-
21OPXnj0Rk](https://us02web.zoom.us/join/zoom-join?meeting=us02web.zoom.us/join/zoom-join?meeting/register/tZYpcemr-qj4oE9RmFMPzX11PU-21OPXnj0Rk)